

Scottish Chess Magazine

The Magazine of Chess Scotland

www.chessscotland.com

Issue 248
October 2013

Pics courtesy of Andy Howie, Keith Rose, Anežka Kružíková and Prague Chess Society and Frans Peters
Other images courtesy and copyright of Istock Images and Dreamstime.

No part of this magazine may be reproduced without the express permission of the authors and editor. The views expressed in this magazine are not necessarily those of Chess Scotland.

This season has seen the emergence of some terrific new events on the Scottish Chess Congress circuit.

Both Inverness and Largs have recently played host to warmly received events that add a much needed geographical spread to the calendar.

Our cover picture highlights one of our now established events in the Dundee and Angus Congress that has continued to prove that with the right conditions chess players will turn up to play.

Welcome October 2013

Our weekend congress events provide a great introduction and advert for chess in our country, and hopefully the old and the new will continue to thrive and provide as many opportunities as possible for players in every corner of the country to enjoy competitive play.

Peter Woods Editor

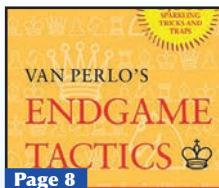

Contents

Page 7 ...win with 5.13!

Competition Time

Your chance to win the latest release from New in Chess with Alistair Maxwell.

Page 8

Saints and Endgames

Geoff Chandler on the perils of endgames and work colleagues.

Page 11

Euro Youth 2013

Some Scottish play from the recent Euro Youth event with Phil Thomas

Page 13

Dundee Congress

Results and images from another very successful event in Dundee.

Page 15

All Aboard

Andrew Burnett shares his experiences of his travels aboard the Chess Train.

Page 20

Chess Greats

Russian supremacy teaches us a thing or two with Duncan Walker.

Page 23

Treble Top - Part 3

Hugh Brechin presents the last of his three articles on Edinburgh Chess Club's season.

Page 33

Inside Chess Scotland

Latest developments from Keith Rose and Chess Scotland's PVG signatories